

DISABILITY SERVICES

STANDARD 1 - RIGHTS

Objective

- To ensure each client is aware of their rights and such rights are respected
- To uphold and promote the legal and human rights of each client
- To promote ethical, respectful and safe service delivery, which meets, if not exceeds, legislative requirements and achieves positive outcomes for people with disability.

Scope

This policy applies to all disability service functions provided by Gilgandra Shire Council, specifically:

- clients and staff of Orana Living (Accommodation and Life Skills Centre)
- supported employees and staff of Carlginda Enterprises
- volunteers with Orana Living and Carlginda Enterprises

Policy

1. Each person will have access to information and support to understand and exercise their legal and human rights.
2. Each person will receive a service that maximises their right to make decisions and choices in all domains of their life including social participation and cultural inclusion.
3. Each person will receive a service in an environment free from discrimination, financial, sexual, physical and emotional abuse, neglect and exploitation.
4. Each person will receive a service that reflects their right to privacy and have their personal records and details dealt with in an ethical and confidential manner in line with relevant legislation.
5. Each person can expect support and encouragement with self protective strategies and behaviours that take into account their individual and cultural needs.
6. Clients are encouraged and supported to access advocacy services in order to promote their rights, interests and wellbeing.
7. Consent is gained from each client or their person responsible or legal representative for medical treatments and interventions as required by law.
8. Opportunities are provided for clients to participate in the development and review of organisational policy and processes that promote strategies for equality and upholding human rights.
9. Individual choices and the rights of each person are taken into account in relation to nutritional and behaviour management practices in line with relevant legislation, convention, policies and procedures and balanced against staff duty of care.

10. Staff will have the knowledge and skills to implement reporting processes on incidents of alleged or known discrimination, abuse, neglect or exploitation and know how to notify the relevant external authorities.
11. Appropriate support will be offered to each client and their family or carer when they raise or pursue allegations of discrimination, abuse, neglect or exploitation.

DISABILITY SERVICES

STANDARD 2 – PARTICIPATION AND INCLUSION

Objective

- To actively encourage and support clients to participate in their community in ways that are important to them
- To develop and promote connections with the community for active and meaningful participation

Scope

This policy applies to all disability service functions provided by Gilgandra Shire Council, specifically:

- clients and staff of Orana Living (Accommodation and Life Skills Centre)
- supported employees and staff of Carlginda Enterprises
- volunteers with Orana Living and Carlginda Enterprises

Policy

1. Each client will be supported in their decision making about how they connect with their chosen community, and staff will be respectful of their choices and plans including work, learning, leisure and their social lives.
2. With the consent of the client, staff will work with an individual's family, carer, significant other or advocate to promote their connection, inclusion and participation in the manner they choose.
3. Opportunities for active and meaningful participation of clients in the community will be sought.
4. Information will be actively sought about other supports and services in the local and wider community to enable people with a disability to achieve their goals and to minimise barriers to participation.
5. Training and support is provided to staff and volunteers so workers understand, respect and act on the interests and skill development of people with a disability.
6. Staff and volunteers model respectful and inclusive behaviour when supporting people in their community as a way of promoting the uniqueness of each individual.
7. Staff will take opportunities to promote community and cultural connection for those clients with a CALD background.

DISABILITY SERVICES

STANDARD 3 – INDIVIDUAL OUTCOMES

Objective

- To maximise person centred decision making for our clients
- To undertake person centred approaches to planning and service delivery to enable each client to achieve their individual outcomes

Scope

This policy applies to all disability service functions provided by Gilgandra Shire Council, specifically:

- clients and staff of Orana Living (Accommodation and Life Skills Centre)
- supported employees and staff of Carlginda Enterprises
- volunteers with Orana Living and Carlginda Enterprises

Policy

1. The rights of each client will be at the centre of decision making and clients will have responsibility, as much as possible, for each decision which affects them
2. Each client will be supported in determining the involvement of their family, carers and advocates in planning and in the decision making process.
3. The views of family and carers in planning and decision making processes will be respected, however the client will have the final say in the process.
4. Every effort will be made to enable a client to make a decision or assist families, carers and advocates to come to an agreement before a substitute decision maker is engaged.
5. Innovative and flexible responses will be sought to meet the CALD needs of the individual clients.
6. Together with each client, develop and implement a plan that identifies and builds on the client's strengths, aspirations and goals. Plans should draw on broader family, cultural and religious networks and community organisations.
7. Each client will be supported (and when necessary with consent of their family, carer or advocate) to develop, review, assess and adjust their plan as their circumstances or goals change.
8. The importance of risk taking will be recognised and clients will be assisted to assess the benefits and risks of each option available to them. Trial approaches may be used.
9. Person centred approaches will be regularly reviewed to ensure the organisation has the capacity and capability to deliver flexible and responsive supports and services that meet individual needs and expectations.
